

Vision Statement

Lead the transit industry in innovative sustainable maintenance programs enhancing customer experiences and regional connectivity.

Mission Statement

Bus Maintenance employees will provide safe, clean, reliable buses, service vehicles and support equipment to customers in an equitable and efficient manner.

Steer your mechanic career in the right direction at Metro.

Metro is now hiring bus mechanics.
We're a great career option for mechanics looking for stability and to make a difference in the Washington Metropolitan region. Learn more inside or scan the code to apply!

What we offer you

- Guaranteed eight hours of pay five days a week
- Starting pay over $70K annually as a Mechanic D
- Opportunities to earn overtime
- 9-week training program to become familiar with our maintenance programs
- On-going training opportunities and annual ASE Master Technician bonus
- Health and dental insurance and other competitive benefits
- Free transportation on Metrorail and Metrobus

Minimum Qualifications

- High school diploma or possession of a general equivalency diploma (GED)
- Experience: Level D
- Two years as a garage mechanic or related experience

The following vocational/technical training can be substituted for two years of full-time work experience at all levels:

- Three years high school mechanical training
- Two years tech school mechanical training; OR, two years college mechanical training

And any of the following:

- One current ASE certification in one field: transit bus, automotive, medium/heavy truck or school bus
- Military Occupational Skills Course certifications in a related field
- Associate's degree in Automotive Technology
- Automotive manufacturer-specific certifications
- Two years of vocational training in transit bus, automotive, medium/heavy truck or school bus maintenance from an accredited school recognized by the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges

