New Carrollton Metrorail Station Eastside Joint Development Project

Metro is seeking feedback on the closure of two surface lots and one Kiss & Ride lot and the addition of a new parking garage at the New Carrollton Metrorail Station as part of the next joint development phase.

About the Project

In 2003, Metro and Prince George's County anticipated development around the New Carrollton Metrorail Station. Since then, multiple changes have taken place on the east side of the station as part of the joint development master plan, including the construction of a Metro parking garage and new residential and office facilities.

To move ahead with the next phase of the joint development to create a pedestrian-friendly and attractive urban environment and meet existing and future parking demands, Metro is proposing:

- Permanently closing Park & Ride Lot 2 for future development
- Permanently closing the East Lot for future development
- Permanently closing the Kiss & Ride Lot in front of the station's east entrance
- Constructing a new Metro parking garage, replacing the county parking garage and some of the lost parking from the closed lots.
